IMPORTANT DEPOSIT ACCOUNT INFORMATION

In Case of Errors or Questions About Your Statements: If you think your statement or receipt is wrong or if you need more information about a transfer on the statement or receipt, we must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement or receipt. We will investigate your complaint and correct any error promptly. If we take more than 10 business days to do this, we will credit your account for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation.

1. Tell us your name and account number (if any) as soon as you can, if you believe there is an error or why you need more information.
2. Describe the error or transfer you are unsure about. Explain as clearly as you can why you believe there is an error or why you need more information.
3. Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.
If you are a debtor in bankruptcy or you discharged your personal liability for your loan in statement is not an attempt to collect a debt against you. If you have filed a Chapter 13 bankruptcy and your bankruptcy plan requires you to send your regular monthly loan payments to the Trustee, you should pay us directly instead of us and to make your payments and compliance with your questions. If you want to stop receiving or having access to your statements, write to us.
